

Jewelry Store Robbery

By the Fairfield Connecticut Police Department

On 9/08/2008 a Robbery occurred at Fairfield Center Jewelers, Post Road, Fairfield, CT. A B/M and B/F entered the store and asked to look at a $20,000.00 ring. The male asked to look at the ring under a scope. When the male employee left to get the scope, the male suspect sprayed the female employee with mace or pepper spray and fled the store. The male is described as light skinned, wearing long denim shorts with gold embroidery up the right pant leg, long blue t-shirt, and a large watch. His hair was in cornrows in an "S" pattern with tails at the end. He is 5-8 to 5-10, slim build, late 20's to early 30's. The female is darker skinned, 5-6 to 5-8, slender build, wearing a black wig in a "Bob" cut, and 2 1/2 inch heels.

Suspects fled in a TAN SUV, bearing Reg. HBY-1523 (Non CT Plate).
